

Planned Network Maintenance - Mudd Building

OIT Networking will be upgrading the software on the network switches in the Mudd building. During this time network access will be unavailable. Notification will be sent at completion.