

proxy server issue resolved

Access to web based services (owlspace) and email through the Rice network and VPN have been resolved. Access to these services from off campus may take longer. IT will be monitoring to ensure that this issue completely resolves from off campus over night. An all clear will be issued at that time.