

Networking services disrupted this morning (4-20-2016)

Several buildings are experiencing networking issues this morning. The BRC is currently completely off-line for a period. Mudd and FE&P, and some other smaller buildings may be affected as well. Networking technicians are working on both issues right now. Printing to plotters in Mudd may also be impacted. We will post an update when services are restored.