

ECE file server outage Tuesday morning, 7-6

The ECE file server experienced a failed disk controller this morning. Temporarily, all NFS exported and SAMBA exported filesystems for ECE machines were unavailable.

A reboot of the server brought the filesystems back online, but the root cause of the failure is still being investigated. Updates will be provided if the server fails again or if downtime is needed to address the root cause.